

Rogers Healy

Owner and CEO
Morrison Seger Venture Capital Partners

Rogers Healy is a seasoned entrepreneur and investor with over 20 years of experience building businesses. He considers his secret weapon to be his eye for talent. As a multi-time founder, Rogers knows what it takes and what makes a company successful.

Rogers' entrepreneurial journey began early, and in 2006, he founded what would become Texas's largest independently owned real estate firm—Rogers Healy and Associates Real Estate (RHA). Rogers quickly grew his real estate empire with Rogers Healy and Associates Land and Lake, Rogers Healy and Associates Commercial, Healy Global Real Estate and Relocation, and Healy Property Management.

In 2012, Rogers made his first venture capital investment in Mizzen + Main, sparking a passion for connecting the dots in the startup world. Over the next decade, he invested in various industries—from CPG to SaaS—before launching Morrison Seger Venture Capital Partners. “MoSe” quickly became known for backing early-stage companies, with investments spanning everything from tequila to trading cards, bringing a fresh perspective to venture capital.

Most importantly, Rogers leads with faith and family. He and his wife, Abby, are proud parents to their daughters, Henley and Collins (named after Eagles frontman Don Henley and Phil Collins), their dogs, and all their music memorabilia. Rogers has one of the largest collections of music memorabilia in the world. During his free time, Rogers enjoys relaxing with his family and friends at 'Hotel California'—his 2,500-square-foot back house turned music oasis.

As a veteran investor, Rogers is a part of some of the most well-known brands in the world.
